Descendants of John Nealon

Preface

The research behind the genealogy presented here was begun in August 2002 in an attempt to document the family genealogy given to me by Sylvia Bryant. The trail started in Limerick, Ireland, where John Nealon was born in 1855. His ancestry is unknown, and there are at present no viable theories regarding his parentage. From there, the trail led to Argentina where he and his wife Mary Donaghue and their children travelled in 1889.

This is a unfinished work as the family fortunately continues spreading around the world. I'd be grateful if you could send me news, comments and data to increase this family tree.
